

March 29, 2012
The Hyatt Regency Hotel
300 Reunion Blvd., Dallas, Texas

Volume Transmission Remanufacturing Group Clinic

Thursday, March 29, 2012

7:30 a.m.

APRA Registration in Hotel Lobby
(ShowPower desk)

8:00 a.m.

Depart for Plant Tours – Bishop International and AER

Bishop International includes remanufacturing manual units and reclamation of automatic-transmission hard parts. The second facility is AER's massive engine remanufacturing plant

Lunch at AER Auto Museum

Lunch is hosted by AER after the tour of their facility and their private collection of classic vehicles.

1:30 p.m.

Return to the hotel

2:00 p.m.

Introductions and Opening Remarks - Jim Slimp, Chairman of Volume Transmission Remanufacturing Group

2:10 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

The Warranty Quagmire - John Schroeder, Jasper Engines & Transmissions

3:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Overview of the Current State of the Transmission Market - Bobby Mace, Publisher, Transmission Digest

3:30 p.m. - 4:15 p.m.

Chemical Cleaning Tips - Jack Daul, Transbrite

4:15 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.

ATF: Why the Right Fluid, Is the “Right” Fluid - Laurie Strasser, Afton Chemicals

The benefits & risks of transmission fluids to your bottom line.

6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

VTRG “Welcome to Dallas” Texas BBQ

Hotel: For hotel reservations, go to the ShowPower link – www.showpowerexpo.com. The room rate is $119 single/double.

When you register for the APRA VTRG Clinic, you will also receive a badge that will get you into the ShowPower Exhibits.