AUTOBULLETINS.COM

AutoBulletins.com is an online service from APRA which gives you the ability to look up original technical service bulletins (more than 88,495 on file) for any car or light truck – new or old – starting in 1987.

This system is as easy as your ABC's (AutoBulletins.Com):

- A – Select your vehicle
- B – Select the vehicle system
- C – View the bulletin

You can carry out a very focused look-up or you can perform a more general search for bulletins focused on specific systems such as brakes, electronics or transmissions.
